

ABBREVIATED VERSION

1. This abbreviated version serves to summarize the detailed terms and conditions below and does not replace them.
2. These terms and conditions form part of any contract with the Institute for Advanced Mining Technologies (hereinafter AMT) for the purpose of participation in the 2nd International Conference on High-Performance Mining (hereinafter HPM).
3. Registrations for HPM are handled via the electronic application portal <https://www.intac-shop.de/en/hpm2020> (English version) or <https://www.intac-shop.de/de/hpm2020> (German version) provided by the RWTH International Academy gGmbH. A contract is only concluded once a respective contract of participation is signed or a confirmation of registration has been delivered.
4. The HPM is fee-based. Further details are determined by the contracts of participation.
5. In case of default of payment, dunning costs are due with the second reminder of payment.
6. Depending on the time at which participation in the HPM was cancelled, cancellation fees apply.
7. AMT reserves the right to cancel the HPM due to an insufficient number of participants. Alternative offers are suggested to participants. Should these not prove acceptable to the participant, already paid participation fees are reimbursed to the full amount.
8. Contents and media used during the HPM are protected by copyright. These media may not be multiplied, distributed or used for any other purpose but participating in the conference.
9. All contents, media and documents are protected by copyright. Participants are not permitted to create audio-visual records during the event.
10. AMT does not assume any liability for the accuracy, timeliness and completeness of the event documents and contents or for damages resulting from their application or distribution.
11. AMT is only liable in cases of malicious intent or gross negligence.
12. Participants consent to the possible use of photo or video records including their image by AMT as well as its agents. This consent may be revoked at any time in written form.
13. Personal data are stored and processed according to the currently valid data protection regulations.
14. The court of jurisdiction is Aachen.

DETAILED VERSION

Scope of jurisdiction

For participating in the 2nd International Conference on High-Performance Mining (hereinafter HPM) hosted by the Institute for Advanced Mining Technologies, Wüllner Straße 2, 52062 Aachen (hereinafter AMT), the present terms and conditions exclusively apply. Other contradictory terms and conditions of third parties or participants do not apply.

Registration/confirmation of registration

Registrations for HPM are accepted via the electronic registration portal <https://www.intac-shop.de/en/hpm2020> (English version) or <https://www.intac-shop.de/de/hpm2020> (German version) provided by RWTH International Academy gGmbH. Privacy information for this portal is provided at <https://www.academy.rwth-aachen.de/en/index/privacy>.

By registering for HPM, participants have acknowledged and consented to the contents and the definition of target groups.

The registration only becomes legally binding by a confirmation of successful registration sent via E-mail.

Any legally binding registration is subject to these terms and conditions.

Payments

The participation in HPM as well as additional services are fee-based, per person. The costs of payment transactions other than by credit card and Paypal (and others) are always borne by the participant.

The participation fee is due upon receipt of the invoice and is to be paid without deduction to the account stated in the invoice.

In the case of a default of payment, a first payment reminder is sent free of charge within at most 10 days. Afterwards, dunning costs to the amount of 2 % of the due participation fee are added for the first and 50 euros for any further reminder of payment. In the event of non-payment, AMT reserves the right of cancelling and reassigning the scheduled presentation of the speakers and to cancel the registration of participants for a fee.

Cancellation

Participants have the right to cancel their binding registration. Such cancellation is to be explained in written form by a letter or by e-mail to veranstaltungen@academy.rwth-aachen.de.

Depending on the time and date at which participation in the HPM was cancelled, cancellation fees apply.

The cancellation fees may be set individually in the participant contracts. If not defined, the following applies:

- Cancellations up to 6 weeks before the start of the event will not incur any cancellation fees.
- For cancellations up to 3 weeks prior to the start of the event, cancellation fees of 50% of the participation fee will be charged.
- For cancellations within 3 weeks before the start of the event, the full fee must be paid.

Alternatively, the participants are free to nominate a substitute person for participation in HPM.

If a registered participant does not attend the conference, the full participation fee must be paid.

The participant is not entitled to partial or full reimbursement of event fees already paid in the event of illness or early departure from the conference.

Cancellation policy

Right of cancellation for participants

You have the right to cancel this contract within 14 days without giving any reasons. The cancellation period is 14 days after the day of contract conclusion.

In order to execute your right of cancellation, you have to inform AMT about your decision to cancel the contract in a clear declaration (e.g. a letter by mail or an e-mail). For that purpose, you may use the cancellation form included below. Please note that this is not required. To stay within the cancellation period, it is sufficient to send the notice of executing your right of cancellation prior to the cancellation period ending.

Please direct the cancellation to AMT:
Institute for Advanced Mining Technologies
Wüllner Straße 2
52062 Aachen

Or to our event service provider:
RWTH International Academy gGmbH
Campus-Boulevard 30
Cluster Produktionstechnik

Consequences of cancellation

If you cancel this contract within 14 days of receiving the confirmation of registration by email, all payments received by the RWTH International Academy gGmbH have to be reimbursed without delay and within at most 14 days from the day when your notice about cancelling the contract has reached us. For the reimbursement, the RWTH International Academy gGmbH will use the same means of payment as used during your original transaction, unless another means of payment is expressly agreed with you. Under no circumstances will we add fees for this reimbursement.

If you have demanded for the services/events to begin during the cancellation period or if the services/events booked by you start during the cancellation period, you will have to pay us an appropriate share of the intended total sum, corresponding to the share of services provided until the time of receipt of the cancellation notice.

If you cancel the contract after more than 14 days, cancellation fees as given above apply.

Cancellation by the organizer/change of event

Should, contrary to expectation, too few participants register for HPM, AMT reserves the right to cancel the conference. Participants will be informed promptly.

AMT will, as far as possible and reasonable under the circumstances, suggest alternative offers to the participants of the cancelled HPM. If the participant agrees, he or she will be assigned to the alternative offer free of charge.

Should this not be acceptable to the participant, any potentially paid fees will be reimbursed to the full amount. Further claims, in particular regarding reimbursement of travel or accommodation costs as well as absence from work, are excluded.

AMT reserves the right to any changes in organization, staffing or location or the procedure of HPM, provided these do not significantly affect the overall character of the event.

In the event that the conference cannot be held or will have to be changed due to events beyond the control of AMT (force majeure) or due to events which are not attributable to wrongful intent or gross negligence of AMT, AMT cannot be held liable for any damages, costs, or losses incurred. Under these circumstances, AMT reserves the right to withhold costs already incurred and not reimbursable by third parties for the organization of the conference, up to a maximum of the registration fee paid.

Certificates of achievement

Upon request, participants will be granted a certificate of attendance.

E-mail: veranstaltungen@academy.rwth-aachen.de

Copyright

All event documents (both in physical and in digital form, such as e.g. video and audio recordings) are protected by copyright. The multiplication, distribution or other usage of the documents as well as any documents, graphics, audio-visual materials as well as other information carriers provided by AMT or its agents is only permitted with explicitly written consent by AMT.

Liability

The HPM is carefully prepared and executed by the conference's organizing committee. AMT does not assume any liability for the timeliness, accuracy and completeness of the event documents and presentations, the execution of HPM and its contents. In particular, AMT does not assume any liability for possible damages resulting from the application or distribution of knowledge acquired or conveyed in the course of HPM.

AMT is liable for such property and financial damages it is at fault for, no matter for which legal reason – but only insofar as it can be charged with malicious intent or gross negligence.

Photographs/audio-visual recordings

During HPM, taking photographs or creating audio-visual recordings of any kind (apart from possibilities given within the Whova platform) is forbidden for people who are not specifically assigned by AMT.

The video sessions might be recorded (audio/visual/chat recordings) and they might be available as on demand videos afterwards.

Data protection

AMT and its agent's process and store the data collected as part of the participation in HPM and permanently guarantee the protection of such data. By registering for the 2nd High-Performance Mining Conference you agree to the transfer of your data (name, e-mail, address) to our virtual conference provider Whova. Please also check the data protection agreement of Whova for further details. (<https://whova.com/privacy/>)

Severability Clause

In case any provision in this Supplemental Indenture shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby and such provision shall be ineffective only to the extent of such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability.

Court of jurisdiction

The court of jurisdiction is, unless the participant is not a natural person, Aachen.
